

Our family and our community think the FCC has a primary responsibility to the whole of America, not TV and Radio stations and their owners/management. Don't permit further consolidation. We need to have a wide variety in what we get from the media -- not single points of view. Thank you for listening.